KHIKI, FOCUS KENYA

Pray for the perseverance and renewal of our students, especially those who are experiencing doubts about God. Pray that students would remain full of faith, committed to serving, and determined to live a righteous life.

ROY, TAFES TANZANIA

Let's join in faith to pray for consistency in student groups on campuses in Tanzania. Pray that each student would develop a strong personal relationship with God, a deep desire and zeal to study his Word individually and apply it obediently.

BRIGHT, GHAFES GHANA

We seek to put stronger emphasis on small group discipleship of tertiary students. Please pray as we discern the study material to use as curriculum, effective structures, and faithful and available student leaders to run these small groups. Pray for Christian students in GHAFES to love the gospel and to boldly proclaim it to their non-Christian friends. Pray for non-Christian students to be open to the gospel and encounter its truth and light. Pray for the unity of the Christian groups and leadership on all tertiary campuses in Ghana.

BIBIANO, GBECA ANGOLA

Pray with us that students – the ones sustaining the movement – would remain resilient. At the moment we only have one full-time worker, the general secretary, due to lack of finances. In a community with over 20 universities where we know Christian students, it has been really challenging to encourage them to form student groups. They easily get demotivated, especially because 90% of them are non-residents and they don't want to stay on campus to meet together.

Another challenge is that some denominations misunderstand what student ministry is. Most Christian students fear to join an inter-denominational movement, assuming they will be unduly negatively influenced by others. There are also some opportunities. 93% of the Angolan population are thought to be Christians. We are free to express our faith without fear of persecution or detention, which means student ministry has great potential for evangelizing and discipling university students. Pray that God would use us here.

PEDRO, GBECA ANGOLA

Please pray with us for the student ministry, as well as the academic and professional lives of GBECA students. Please pray that God would be glorified even as we face a lack of freedom of speech politically in our country.

SIMO, ESWAFES ESWATINI

The political climate of eSwatini has been drastically deteriorating since early last year. The people call for democratic reforms, but the government seems to be resistant. There have been demonstrations and riots, and unfortunately lives have been lost. We need renewal in the political space, with God's intervention to bring about peace. This political climate directly affects the livelihood of our students and the movement at large. Additionally, the high cost of living makes everything difficult. Please pray into these challenges with us, to the God who is 'able to do abundantly more than all we ask or imagine' (Ephesians 3:20).

DANIEL, LIFES LIBERIA

Pray that our students would be focused on God, even amid the challenges. Pray that he would provide materially for them, so that they can remain committed to the fellowship in our movement.

Pray that students would love God, committing to study the Bible and reach out to their friends with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Please pray as well for those who could commit to being staff workers.

MUTHONI, FOCUS KENYA

Serving the Lord while studying creates financial challenges. Please pray for more grace so as to be able to balance the calling and studies. Most Christian students are facing challenges like depression as they find it difficult to balance the two main areas.

CECILIA, ZAFES ZAMBIA

Lack of finances limits our bonding with students and leadership development. Also, on 7 September our office space was gutted with fire. It's been a big blow to our movement but we continue to trust God even in this season. Pray for renewed ministry in ZAFES, that God may help us in our service to Him and to His people. Pray that God may renew the hearts of students and staff alike to be more committed to the mission and vision of ZAFES.

PEDRO, GBECA ANGOLA

Pray for us as we work to raise the awareness among students of how faith can speak into politics.

PRAYER CARD

PEDRO, GBECA ANGOLA

Please pray that despite the influence of changing political ideologies, and the difficulty of accessing certain resources which make the ministry more difficult, that the power of the gospel would break through all barriers, physical and ideological to reach those who need to hear and receive it.
